

The Global Financial Crisis and Asian Financial Markets

Date: August 20, 2010

Venue: Kojima Conference Room, Economics Research Annex
(Kojima Hall), University of Tokyo

Organizers:

The Center for International Research on the Japanese Economy (CIRJE), U. of Tokyo

The Center for Advanced Research in Finance (CARF), U. of Tokyo

Graduate School of Business, Seoul National University

Guanghua School of Management, Peking University

Program

14: 00 – 14:15 Welcome Remarks

Kazuo Ueda (CARF, University of Tokyo)

Session I

Chair: Sangkee Min (Seoul National University)

14:15 – 15:00

Speaker: Longkai Zhao (Peking University)

"Internationalized firms in the financial crisis" (with Wei Luo and Heng Yue)

Discussant: Mariko Fujii (University of Tokyo)

15:00-15:15 Coffee Break

Session II

Chair: XU Xinzhong (Peking University)

15:15 – 16:00

Speaker: Yeongseop Rhee (Seoul National University)

“Global Crisis, Global Imbalance, and G20 Summit”

Discussant: Tokuo Iwaisako (Ministry of Finance, Japan)

16:00 – 16:45

Speaker: Sung Wook Joh (Seoul National University)

“Risk Taking of ‘Too Big To Fail’ Banks: Evidence from Surviving Banks after a Financial Crisis” (with Hyungkwon JEONG (Bank of Korea))

Discussant: Junko Koeda (University of Tokyo)

16:45-17:00 Coffee Break

Session III

Chair: Mariko Fujii (University of Tokyo)

17:00-17:45

Speaker: Shin-ichi Fukuda (University of Tokyo)

“Market-specific and Currency-specific Risk Premiums during the Global Financial Crisis: Evidence from the Interbank Markets in Tokyo and London”

Closing Remarks

Shin-ichi Fukuda (CIRJE, University of Tokyo)

Closing Remarks

Shin-ichi Fukuda (CIRJE, University of Tokyo)

Each paper has 20 minutes for the presentation, 10 minutes for the discussant, and 15 minutes for floor discussions.