

Joint Seminar

Evaluation of Development Assistance: Perspectives from the World Bank Group and JICA

Date: Monday October 8, 2012, 3:00PM-5:15PM

Venue: Lecture Hall #1, Faculty of Economics, University of Tokyo

Organizers: IEG, World Bank; JICA Research Institute; ESPD project, University of Tokyo
(No Reservation Required)

Evaluation of development assistance is an indispensable, key means to improve development effectiveness. In this seminar, we invite experts from the World Bank Group and JICA Research Institute to learn from their experiences in post-disaster reconstruction, social protection, and other technical assistance.

15:00-15:30 Remarks by Ms. Caroline Heider, Vice President, IEG, World Bank
"Improving the Effectiveness of Development Agencies through Independent evaluation"

15:30-16:00 Remarks by Prof. Akio Hosono, Director, JICA Research Institute
"Resilience and Disaster Risk Management"

16:00-17:15 Panel Discussion

Akio Hosono
Caroline Heider
Emmanuel Jimenez, IEG Director
Yasuyuki Todo, U. of Tokyo & JICA RI
Yasuyuki Sawada, U. of Tokyo & JICA RI

17:30- Reception

- Venue: Lecture Hall #1, Faculty of Economics, University of Tokyo

